LESSON 10 SUPPLEMENTS by Dennis N. Roberts

SUPPLEMENT #1 Joseph Smith

JS taught husbands, “It is the duty of a husband to love, cherish, and nourish his wife, and cleave unto her and none else; he ought to honor her as himself, and he ought to regard her feelings with tenderness.”

(Elders Journal; Aug. 1838, 61)

JS taught wives that they should treat their husbands “with mildness and affection. When a man is borne down with trouble, when he is perplexed with care and difficulty, if he can meet a smile instead of an argument or a murmur-if he can meet with mildness, it will calm down his soul and soothe his feelings.”

(Teachings of the Prophet JS,[1976], 228)

SUPPLEMENT #2 Joseph Smith

“With what unspeakable delight, and what transports of joy swelled my bosom, when I took by the hand, on that night, my beloved Emma—she that was my wife, even the wife of my youth, and the choice of my heart. Many were the reverberations of my mind when I contemplated for a moment the many scenes we had been called to pass through, the fatigues and the toils, the sorrows and sufferings, and the joys and consolations, from time to time, which had strewed our paths. ... Oh what a commingling of thought filled my mind for the moment, again she is here, ... undaunted, firm, and unwavering—unchangeable, affectionate Emma!”

(History of the Church, 5:107.)

SUPPLEMENT #3 Lucy Mack Smith

“I have never seen a woman in my life, who would endure every species of fatigue and hardship, from month to month, and from year to year, with that unflinching courage, zeal, and patience, which she has ever done; for I know that which she had had to endure. ... She has breasted the storms of persecution, and buffeted the rage of men and devils, which would have borne down almost any other woman.”

(History of Joseph Smith, ed. Preston Nibley [1958], 190–91.)

SUPPLEMENT #4 Elder Marvin J. Ashton

“None of us will escape tragedy and suffering. Each of us will probably react differently. However, if we can recall the Lord’s promise, ‘for I the Lord am with you,’ we will be able to face our problems with dignity and courage. We will find the strength to be of good cheer instead of becoming resentful, critical, or defeated. We will be able to meet life’s unpleasant happenings with clear vision, strength, and power. ... What a joy it is to see someone of good cheer, who, when others because of an unpleasant happening or development live in angry silence or vocal disgust, meets the situation with cheerful endurance and good spirits”

(In Conference Report, Apr. 1986, 84–85; or Ensign, May 1986, 66.)

I Nephi 19:23 - The scriptures become much more meaningful if we liken them unto us.

LESSON 10 by Dennis N. Roberts

This Is My Voice Unto All

(Objective: to help members apply revelations into their own lives)

Four infant children died within four years. Of 11 children, only 3 sons and one daughter lived into late adulthood.

What was happening to the church at this time?

Welcome

To whom is the Lord speaking in Section 25? Given to Emma in 1830 along with sections 24 and 26

- f. D&C 136:29 If thou art sorrowful... ..
- g. What are consequences of being negative?
- h. Why be of good cheer?.....
- i. Supplement #4 Elder Marvin J. Ashton.....

Haven't we all known somebody who walks within a dark and ominous cloud, oblivious to the feelings of others? They dwell on their own desires and needs and have little or no regard for those of others. They turn every conversation and activity back to themselves and react with adult tantrums if their wishes are not immediately satisfied. They reverse the uplifting mood of a room by their mere presence and we all ask, "Why don't they recognize their negative influence and change?"

How does this apply to me?

Is it really possible for members of the Granger 18th Ward to find peace and joy regardless of our circumstances?
