LESSON 25 SUPPLEMENTS by Dennis Roberts

SUPPLEMENT #1 Elder Carlos E. Asay

“Of all the holy agreements pertaining to the gospel of Jesus Christ, few, if any, would transcend in importance the oath and covenant of the priesthood. It is certainly one of the most sacred agreements, for it involves the sharing of heavenly powers and man’s upward reaching toward eternal goals”

(General Conference, October 1985).

SUPPLEMENT #2      Joseph Fielding Smith

“the blessings of the priesthood are not confined to men alone. These blessings are also poured out ... upon all the faithful women of the Church. ... The Lord offers to his daughters every spiritual gift and blessing that can be obtained by his sons, for neither is the man without the woman, nor the woman without the man in the Lord”

(General Conference, April 1970)

SUPPLEMENT #3      Elder M. Russell Ballard

“Those who hold the priesthood must never forget that they have no right to wield priesthood authority like a club over the heads of others in the family or in Church callings. Any man who seeks to use the priesthood in any degree of unrighteousness in the Church or in the home simply does not understand the nature of his authority. Priesthood is for service, not servitude; compassion, not compulsion; caring, not control”

(General Conference, Oct. 1993).

SUPPLEMENT #4      Gordon B. Hinckley

“It has been my privilege on various occasions to converse with Presidents of the United States and important men in other governments. At the close of each such occasion I have reflected on the rewarding experience of standing with confidence in the presence of an acknowledged leader. And then I have thought, what a wonderful thing, what a marvelous thing it would be to stand with confidence—unafraid and unashamed and unembarrassed—in the presence of God. This is the promise held out to every virtuous man and woman” (General Conference, Oct. 1970)
