

"He Will Dwell with Them, and They Shall Be His People"

Lesson 46

Introduction

- How do you feel when you read about incidents such as these?

1. Satan fights against the righteous. (Revelation 5:1–5; 6; D&C 77:6–7).

- What major thing we learn from chapter 6 about what Satan has been doing throughout the history of the earth?
- According to Revelation 6:4–11, what are some ways he has done this?
- What tactics does Satan use today to try to overcome the righteous?
- How can we maintain hope and a positive outlook as we fight the war against Satan?
- What resources do we have to strengthen us against the power of Satan and his followers?

2. Satan will be bound, and Christ will reign in triumph during the Millennium. (Revelation 19:1–9 and 20:1–11.)

- John identified many plagues, wars, and judgments that would occur before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ (Revelation 8–16). Then, in Revelation 19,
- What did John use to describe the coming of the Lord?
- In what way is this an appropriate symbol? (Revelation 19:7–9).
- What does the wife of the Lamb represent?
- What does the symbol of the marriage supper, with Christ as the bridegroom and the Church as the bride, suggest about the relationship between the Lord and his Church?
- What must we do to be invited to this marriage supper?

- What event will usher in the Millennium, a thousand-year period of peace upon the earth?
- What will happen to Satan during the Millennium? (See Revelation 20:1–3.)
- What will life be like when Satan is bound? (1 Nephi 22:26; D&C 45:55, 58.)
- How can we limit the power of Satan in our lives right now?

- Satan will be loosed for a season after the Millennium. What will be a reason for great battle that will be fought between the armies of God and the armies of Satan? (Revelation 20:7–8; D&C 88:111–13).
- What is the last great battle sometimes called?
- What will be the result of this great battle at the end of the Millennium? (Revelation 20:9–11; D&C 88:114–15.)

- Since the result of the battle is already known, what is our responsibility regarding this victory?

3. After the last judgment, the righteous will dwell with God. (Revelation 20:12–22:21.)

- After the last great battle, the final judgment will occur. What can we learn from Revelation 20:12 about how we will be judged?
- What blessings will come to those who are judged to be righteous? (Revelation 21:3–7)

4. The dangers of setting our hearts on worldly possessions

- What will be the reaction of the wicked at the destruction of the great worldly kingdom in a brief time? (Revelation 18:11–18)
- Over what will the wicked mourn at the destruction of the great worldly kingdom?
- When have you seen worldly possessions destroyed or lost in a brief amount of time?
- What are the dangers of setting our hearts on worldly things?
- In what ways do worldly things distract us from spiritual things?

5. The First Resurrection

- When will the First Resurrection begin?
- Who will come forth in the first resurrection? (D&C 88:98–99)
- When will the second resurrection begin?
- Who will come forth in that resurrection? (D&C 88:100–102)
- Who are the Sons of Perdition?
- Who inherit the telestial kingdom?

5. The seven seals in the book of Revelation

- The first five seals are covered in 11 verses, What periods of history does it cover?
- The sixth seal is covered in 14 verses, What period of history does it cover?

- The seventh seal is covered in 226 verses What time period does it cover?.
- What does this emphasis teach us?

John gave the most attention to the events of our time period and the one to come. The book of Revelation was written for our day, and our lives will be blessed as we study it and prepare for the Second Coming of the Savior. When the Saints begin to understand Revelations more, we will know the time is near
